

Corinthia backs Cinven's majority investment in Flint Global with tailored financing package

London, 13 January 2026 – Corinthia Global Management (“Corinthia”) announces its role as co-lead arranger and lender in the financing of Cinven’s acquisition of Flint Global, a leading provider of political, policy, regulatory, and economic advisory services headquartered in the UK.

This transaction reflects Corinthia’s strategy to pursue high-quality opportunities in the core middle market alongside top tier sponsors.

Joseph Buckley, Managing Director, European Investments at Corinthia Global Management, said:
“We are delighted to support Cinven and Flint Global in this transaction.

“Flint Global’s differentiated offering, loyal blue-chip client base, and highly experienced team position the business as a leading player in a high-growth market. Cinven’s deep sector expertise and proven track record of creating value further strengthens Flint Global’s prospects for long-term success.

“This investment underscores Corinthia’s commitment to backing resilient businesses led by exceptional management teams and supported by top tier sponsors.”

The Corinthia deal team included Joseph Buckley, April Gagnon, and Pedro Laín.
